

MARK M. LEVIN

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Clinical Associate Professor O'Neill School of Public and Environmental Affairs Indiana University 2015 -
Teaches graduate courses in Local Government Management, Local Economic Development, and Government
Budgeting and Program Analysis

MUNICIPAL MANAGEMENT EXPERIENCE

City Administrator City of Maryland Heights, Missouri (Pop. 27,400) 1985 - 2015
Chief administrative officer since city's incorporation; responsible for management of all city personnel and municipal operations; served as Economic Development Director and Purchasing Agent.

Village Manager Village of Bolingbrook, Illinois (Pop. 39,000) 1983 - 1985
Chief administrative officer; managed all municipal operations; served as Director of Community Development and Director of Personnel.

Village Manager Village of Park Forest South, Illinois (Pop. 6,000) 1980 - 1983
Chief administrative officer; managed all municipal operations; served as Director of Finance.

Assistant City Manager City of Cleveland Heights, Ohio (Pop. 56,000) 1974 - 1980
Worked in all areas of city operations; responsible for economic development and labor negotiations.

EDUCATION

Kennedy School of Government, Harvard University, Cambridge, Massachusetts 1990
Program for Senior Executives in State and Local Government

Kent State University, Kent, Ohio 1968 - 1970
Master of Public Administration (Urban Studies)

Miami University, Oxford, Ohio 1964 - 1968
Bachelor of Science in Education (History and Government)

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

American Society for Public Administration - St. Louis Chapter, Past-President; Chicago Chapter, Past Board
Member; Northeast Ohio Chapter Past-President

Indiana Municipal Management Association - Member

International City/County Management Association - Credentialed Manager; Life Member,

Missouri City Management Association – Life Member Past-President

St. Louis Area City/County Management Association - Past-President

Urban Land Institute - Full Member; past St. Louis District Council Executive Committee & Chair Technical Assistance Panel Program

AWARDS

1999 Jay T. Bell Award for Professional Public Service, Missouri City/County Management Association

2003 L.P. Cookingham Professional Award for Career Development, ICMA

2011 Lifetime Public Service Award, East West Gateway Council of Governments