

The O'Neill School of Public and Environmental Affairs
Honors Program - Special Course Authorization for Honors Credit

This signed document acts as a contract between the course instructor, the O'Neill honors student and the Undergraduate Programs Office. This contract abides by the IU Registrar's calendar regarding all academic deadlines.

The instructor and student agree to meet a minimum of four times throughout the semester. It is recommended the first meeting be prior to the third week of class. These meetings may involve other Honors students who are pursuing this course at an honors level. It is the student responsibility to initiate the first meeting if the instructor has not.

The instructor and student agree to the enriched and elevated learning experience that will define this course as honors-level and the student understands and agrees to the instructor's academic expectations and grading criteria.
