Behavior Disclosure

We are committed to maintaining a safe learning environment. As part of that commitment, Indiana University requires applicants to disclose if they

- have been subject to formal disciplinary actions (including for example, but not limited to, suspension or expulsion for academic or non-academic reasons at any high school, post-secondary institution, college or university;
- have been charged with or convicted of a crime (or a foreign legal equivalent) that has not been expunged by a court;
- and/or have been engaged in behavior that caused injury to person(s) or personal property (including for example, but not limited to, vandalism or behavior that led to a restraining order against you) which resulted in some form of discipline or intervention.

Please note: A previous disciplinary action, charge, conviction, or conduct of the sort identified here does not automatically disqualify applicants from admission to IU, but they do require review by the campus admissions committee. Furthermore, the review of any behavior disclosure information provided will be conducted independently of the evaluation of your academic eligibility for admission and will only be shared with the admissions committee and/or with other officials at IU who have a need to know as part of the behavior review process.

Please answer the following questions:

Have you been subject to formal disciplinary action (including for example, but not limited to, suspension or expulsion) for academic or non-academic reasons at any high school, post-secondary institution, college or university? YES NO

Have you ever been charged of a crime (or a foreign legal equivalent) that has not been expunged by a court? Also selection “yes” if you have currently pending criminal charges (or a foreign legal equivalent) against you. YES NO

If you answered yes to any of the above questions, you must provide additional documentation that contains a complete explanation (in English) of:

- the disciplinary action, charges, conviction, or other behavior that cause injury to person(s) or property which resulted in some form of discipline or intervention;
- the dates and court disposition (court ruling or result),
- the location (city, state and country),
- the impact the incident(s) had on you, and
- a statement granting your permission to officials at all institutions and agencies to release information needed by IU to substantiate statements made in your application or letter.

Please note the campus behavior committee may require additional information from you and that additional time may be required to review the information you provide. You also have a continuing obligation to inform the committee of any formal disciplinary action that occurs prior to class registration or attendance, whichever is applicable.
